

HUNGER IN JUNEAU COUNTY

1 in every 7 people are considered food insecure.¹

Since 2023, the number of people experiencing food insecurity in Juneau County has increased by 51%, driven by rising food, housing, and utility costs, the end of pandemic-era assistance programs, and ongoing economic pressures. As a result, food banks are seeing unprecedented demand, with more people turning to hunger-relief services and needing support more often.

OUR SUPPORT IN JUNEAU COUNTY

4 partners and programs.

Over 6,700 visits made by local families to food pantries, mobile pantries, and school markets.

Nearly 293,000 lbs of food distributed in FY2026*.

* July 2025 - June 2026

JUNEAU COUNTY

¹ Source is Feeding America's Map the Meal Gap research, comparing 2024 estimates (released May of 2026) to 2023 estimates.

² The estimated additional amount all individuals experiencing food insecurity need in your community to purchase just enough food to meet their food needs.